Mid-West Tennessee Genealogical Society

Dear Friends,

In 1975 we wish you a good year of happy hunting! This begins our seventh year in West Tennessee in our attempt to unearth "treasures" to assist one another in genealogical research.

This is your publication and we covet your continued interest and assistance, as well as your indulgence when errors occur. As your new Editor, I am delighted with the information which you have furnished for this issue. We have a good "back-log" of cemetery records, but we welcome additional ones. We particularly need Bible records. Should you have one or more to submit, be sure to include all information on the title page including the date of publication of the Bible as well as the family record.

We have an excellent group of new officers listed below who are giving of their time to provide programs and information which may be of help to you. Remember, though, we are volunteers, so try not to be too critical of our efforts.

Your Society meets on the 2nd Thursday evening of each month at 7 PM at the Jackson-Madison County.

Please note that the Society has a new P. O. Box number. It has recently been changed to #3343. Our dues are $6.00 per year and payment entitles you to each of our quarterly issues of "Family Findings".

Sincerely,

Carmen C. Bruer

In addition to Mrs. May's books, two boxes of newspaper clippings were also included in the gift to the Library from Mrs. May's estate. These are being put into two scrapbooks by Miss Emma Inman Williams.

The first scrapbook, furnished by the Mid-West Genealogical Society, is made up from Dropped Stitches in Southern History, a column written by Mrs. John Trotwood
Moore in the 1930's and which appeared in the Memphis Commercial Appeal. Miss Williams has completed work on this scrapbook. It was indexed by Mrs. L. R. Mitchell.

The second scrapbook, now being prepared by Miss Williams, will contain clippings from Leaves From the Family Tree by Penelope Johnson Allen, a column which appeared in the Chattanooga Times also in the 1930's, as well as Genealogy by Flossie Cloyd which appeared in the Nashville Banner in the 1940's. While this book is not complete, it is available for inspection on appointment with Miss Williams who works part-time in the Tennessee Room at the Library.

This completes the Membership Roll and old Records of the Clear Creek Church of Christ, McNairy County, Tennessee.

THE YOUNG MEN'S MAGAZINE, Vol. II, No. 7, December 1858 carried the following article:

Jackson, Tenn. -- At the last meeting the address was delivered by Dr. Jackson whose subject was "Matrimony" in which he came down on old bachelors in a very unfeeling almost unchristian manner. The West Tennessee "Whig" says of the doctor's effort:

"He showed by high and indisputable authority, that a 'good wife is the gift of God', and that man has never been happy without woman, nor woman without man, since the eternal fiat went forth that 'it is not good for man to be alone.' The doctor says in order to give the proper training 'the animal should be caught young,' and argues from this that it is better for a woman to marry a widower of forty than a bachelor of the same age as it is believed that by the time a man arrives at that age, without the refining influences of women thrown about him, there is an encrustation formed around the heart that is impervious to the arrows of Cupid."

Strange, says the N. O. "Bulletin," that a Christian association should tolerate such hard-hearted sentiments! It is full enough that the hearts of old bachelors should be kept constantly bleeding by the jiltings which they constantly get, without being twitted about their misfortunes in this cruel way. The doctor has doubtless become so accustomed to the use of the lancet that he can cut up a human heart with as much nonchalance as Dinan would manifest in dressing chickens.

This article was taken from the Index of Local YMCAs 1852-1877, compiled by J. T. Bowne, the national YMCA Archivist in 1877 and records the first official record, at a national level, of beginnings of local Associations. Submitted by Miss Sara Margaret Black.

Copy of letter written to Robert McMaster, Medon, Madison County, Tennessee. Under the word Tennessee on the address is the word Carolina. Also stamped on the address side is stamped VERPOOL (?) April 18, 1841, and also stamped NEW YORK, Ship May 20. The envelope and letter are all in one piece. Also stamped on the address side is "paid at Balley Gelly, which must have been in Ireland.

Bally Gelly 11 April 1841

My Dear Brother,

I am sorry to inform you of the death of our loving sister Jane with a scrophular (?) complaint which continued from July until about 12 weeks ago she was tapped & lived about 9 days after the operation.

I paid every attention to her during her illness which was my duty to do.

She had wrote to St. Andrews to Alex. to return to her and accompany her to your residence. (Note probably his old home in Ireland). There is no answer to her letter but god in his infinite mercy has thought fit to take her to himself.

She lived respected and died lamented. I hope you won't forget to write to me, as I still possess a sister love and affection for all my relations but for you my dear brother in particular.

Cousin Samuel is got married to a Miss Smith of Kilhead (Rillead ?) about nine months ago and his brother Robert is living in Carnaby (Cornoboy?) a respected bachelor. He has built a two story house and states (?) fit for an independent farmer is now living well and your old steady friend _____ (not readable) Mary (?) is yet alive and hearty and sends her kind love to you. Whether any of your relations of the name shall ever come from here to visit you or not is yet unknown.

To bother you with a long and useless detail of our numerous relations won't be useless if it suffices to inform you that they are all well and doing well. I could add much more relating to the prices of our markets, our political laws & institutions but as I expect you will never be affected by them.

I conclude this melancholy letter by subscribing myself your loving sister to death.

Mary Cabeen
